

University of London School of Advanced Study
INSTITUTE OF CLASSICAL STUDIES

MYCENAEAN SEMINAR

Wednesdays (unless stated) throughout the year at 3.30pm

All seminars in Room 264, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, unless otherwise specified.

Attendance may be in person or online. Booking is required for all those wishing to attend.

Conveners: Lisa Bendall, Yannis Galanakis, Olga Krzyszkowska,
Borja Legarra Herrero, Andrew Shapland

Contact: b.legarra@ucl.ac.uk (Borja Legarra Herrero)

PROGRAMME 2024-25

9 October Room 264	Laura Ursprung Nerling (Columbia College)	Resistance is Futile: an emerging Cretan Collective Ethos as displayed through the Larnax
13 November Room 264	Lindsay Spencer (Cambridge)	The Middle Helladic pottery from Lerna: an overview
12 December (Thursday) Room 264	Joanne Murphy (UNC Greensboro)	How the dead fuel the living: A Reassessment of the Bronze Age tombs excavated by Blegen around the Palace of Nestor, Pylos
15 January Room 264	Anna Simandiraki- Grimshaw (UCL) and Felix Sattler (Humboldt- Universität zu Berlin)	The making of authenticities: Revisiting Aegean Bronze Age replica knowledge
12 February Room 264	Kostas Sbonias (Ionian University)	Therasia and Thera in the Bronze Age: New Evidence from the Excavation at the Early and Middle Cycladic Settlement Site of Koimisis on Therasia
12 March Room 264	Vangelio Kiriati (British School at Athens)	Title to be advised

MICHAEL VENTRIS MEMORIAL LECTURE

14 May at 5pm (Room 349)	Pietro Militello (University of Catania)	Palace and Town. Phaistos in the II millennium in the light of the recent investigations (2013- 2023)
------------------------------------	---	--